FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

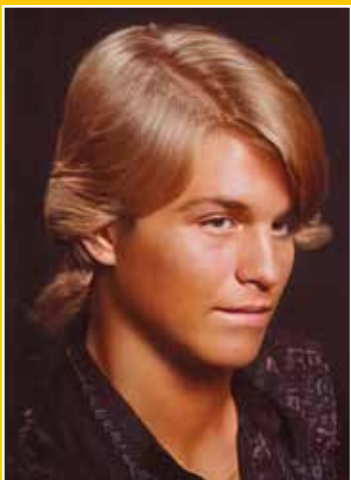

After 12 years as the director of the San Diego International Fringe Festival, I am transitioning to focus on development. In turn, I've asked longtime team member, Shaun Davis, a seasoned local theatre expert, to assist with my request for a leadership transition. Shaun's extensive experience is vital to the festival's ongoing success and alignment with the mission of Contact Arts.

A significant part of our growth strategy includes appointing Shaun as producing director, whose strong local connections will be instrumental. And next year, we will revive our bi-national focus with Mexico venues and artist engagements, paused due to COVID-19, and enhance international cultural exchanges through our alignment with World Fringe, connecting us with more than two hundred global fringe festivals.

I want to thank everyone, past and present, from audience to artists, volunteers to staff, that have contributed so much to making the Fringe a success!

Kevin
Kevin-Charles Patterson

FROM THE PRODUCING DIRECTOR

I am very thankful to have worked with so many talented artists; volunteers; amazing, loyal team members over the past decade and Kevin for his dedication and infectious enthusiasm for the Fringe! I am honored to officially step into the producing director position, and the opportunity to continue growing the festival with this amazing team.

Looking forward, we aim to create more opportunities for audiences and artists, both here and south of the border. We have tripled in size this year, from the post COVID-19 years, regaining our standing as the largest international performing arts festival in San Diego County.

So it is with great pleasure that I welcome you to "11 Days of Eyeball Busting Theatrical Adventures!"

A BRIEF HISTORY OF FRINGE FESTIVALS

The Fringe began in 1947 when eight groups appeared uninvited to the newly formed Edinburgh International Festival and performed their shows "on the fringe" of the main festival — in church basements, storefronts, streets, and alleys.

While the main festival still exists, The Edinburgh Fringe is now the largest performing arts festival in the world: more than 3,000 companies from around the world give thousands of performances during the 3 1/2 weeks of that festival.

More than 200 Fringe Festivals have been established throughout the world, in major cities and rural townships, in warm summer days and snowy winter nights. They provide an opportunity to showcase works and performances in a setting unconstrained by censorship, judgment, or the status quo, and they provide platforms for international artists of all origins and disciplines to collaborate and share their art with each other and with the local community.

PARKING & TRANSPORTATION

BALBOA PARK: CENTRO CULTURAL DE LA RAZA & MARIE HITCHCOCK PUPPET THEATER
 Free parking is available in many small lots throughout Balboa Park within a 10-minute walk of the Fringe venues. The distance between Centro and the Puppet Theater is about a 10-minute walk.
CENTRO CULTURAL DE LA RAZA: The closest parking lot is across the street from Centro at the Inspiration Point Lot. Many people find this to be the easiest place to park for both venues.
MARIE HITCHCOCK PUPPET THEATER: The closest parking lot is The Palisades lot in Pan American Plaza. It is small and fills up quickly.
OTHER PARKING LOTS: The notable larger lots that are in-between Centro and the Puppet Theater are the Federal lot (just off President's Way) and the Organ Pavilion lot (behind the Organ Pavilion). There is the large free parking lot at the San Diego Zoo. It will take about 15-20 minutes to walk to the Puppet Theater from the zoo, and even the zoo lot can fill up on holiday weekends.
STREET PARKING: There is a limited amount of street parking on Park Blvd, starting south of the Fleet Science Center.
NOTE: The free Balboa Park tram does not begin running until June, so it will not be available during the festival. Arrive early to allow time for parking.
